Are you passionate about inspiring children through music?

Would you like to be part of a friendly, high-achieving primary school in a beautiful rural setting?

Bosbury CofE Primary School (Ledbury, HR8) is seeking a talented and enthusiastic Specialist Music Teacher to lead our music provision for one day each week (0.2 FTE) on a fixed-term contract. You will be joining a school with a strong reputation for high standards in music, replacing a well-regarded teacher who's career is moving in a different direction in music education.

Your role will include:

- Leading and delivering music lessons across all year groups (EYFS–Year 6)
- Running and developing the school choir and drumming group
- Organising whole-school concerts and performances
- Building on our already strong curriculum and extracurricular programmes
- Collaborating with our supportive staff, governors, and excellent peripatetic and community partners
- Managing music resources and ensuring high-quality assessment and reporting

What we offer:

- A school with a reputation for musical excellence
- Supportive and welcoming staff and governors
- Excellent links with peripatetic teachers and the wider community
- Opportunities for professional development
- Access to quality instruments and resources
- Friendly, engaged pupils and parents
