The Vacancy

Opportunities have arisen for suitable individuals to work within The Hessle Academy as Primary School Teachers within Penshurst Primary School commencing during the Autumn term 2022.

These will be fixed term positions to cover maternity leave.

One position is full time – Monday to Friday

One position is three days per week – Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

The Academy

At Hessle Academy, we think our learners are extraordinary. Each year they achieve outcomes that are consistently above the national average while regularly dazzling us with their talents in the Arts and Sport.

We couldn't achieve this without our staff – our greatest asset. They are talented, professional, immensely dedicated to the success of our learners and committed to their own professional development.

At Hessle Academy, we value our staff and take their wellbeing seriously, with a commitment to reducing workload over the next three years, an annual staff Wellbeing Day and an active staff social committee. Consequently, Ofsted (September 2018) noted that, 'morale is high'.

As one of the schools in The Consortium Academy Trust, we offer significant career development opportunities for our staff and we expect your commitment in return. We think our learners deserve it.

The Candidate

We are looking for candidates with excellent teaching and communication skills, who will be creative, enthusiastic and committed.

The successful candidates will be talented and creative teachers, consistently delivering high quality lessons who have a desire to inspire pupils.
