Dear Colleague

Principal: Morley Newlands Academy

We are delighted that you have shown an interest in the position of Principal at Morley Newlands Academy. This is a particularly exciting time to join us and make a real difference to the educational achievements of our pupils by shaping the future direction of the school.

We strive for excellence and set high standards for all, working collaboratively to support the progress and attainment of our pupils. The academy received a brilliant Ofsted inspection outcome in January 2018 which highlighted amongst other things the 'impeccably behaved' pupils and the 'expertly and imaginatively taught' curriculum. Academic outcomes for pupils of all ages have consistently been exceptionally strong over time.

This is obviously a key post and the successful candidate will work directly with the Chair of our Local Governing Body, Angela Bradshaw, our Senior Partnership Director, Debra Seekings and our Executive Team. It is important to make clear that we wholeheartedly encourage our Principals to enjoy the freedom that comes with their role in terms of developing the academy and ensuring its excellence, whilst operating within our highly collaborative culture and the strands of consistency in place across GORSE; these strands are captured in GORSE Code which includes initiatives such as Iterative Assessment, Deep Curriculum Analysis, Positive Discipline and Purple Zone.

We enjoy working in close partnership with one another and the successful applicant will undoubtedly benefit from this rich network of support, be this through the weekly Primary Principals' meetings, monthly Leadership Board meetings, through close line management or even through the rich CPD on offer in Leeds Teaching School Hub which is also a part of GORSE. Within GORSE we hold our core values of diligence, integrity, rectitude and kindness at our centre along with our relentless determination to challenge the stubborn link between poverty and achievement.

Above all else, along with the Local Governing Body, we are looking for a colleague who is passionate about working with pupils of all abilities and has already displayed the talent and drive required in outstanding whole school leadership. The successful candidate will have a proven track record of school improvement and will need to be an exceptional teacher, a pragmatist, a visionary and someone who sees through to full completion the initiatives that they lead.
