Candidate Pack

Principal of William Hulme's Grammar School

Welcome

Thank you very much for your interest in becoming Principal of William Hulme's Grammar School.

We think William Hulme's Grammar School is a very good all-through (3-18) school in South Manchester. It is extremely popular and oversubscribed, with deep traditions which we want to keep.

The school and its leadership have done an excellent job of coming into the state sector while retaining its best traditions: it is inclusive and high-performing and has expanded at every level under Peter Mulholland's leadership – with a new primary school and a new sixth form centre. The new Head will take over a school which has developed hugely, stands on solid ground and in good heart.

In the next stage of its development, we believe that William Hulme's Grammar School can and should become a truly extraordinary school, which stands as a beacon of excellence for Manchester, for United Learning and for the wider region. We want it to be one of the country's most admired schools – for depth of scholarship, for sporting, musical and extra-curricular success and for preparing young people for extraordinary success in life.

The next Head will have a vision of that extraordinary school and the ability to achieve it – bringing a track record of excellence in educational practice, in leadership, in motivating and inspiring colleagues and in achieving positive change. For the right person who can see what is possible, this is a career-defining opportunity to write the next chapter in the storied history of one of Manchester's great schools.

United Learning is a big group of schools – with over 60,000 pupils and more than 9,000 staff – so we have the capacity to support you educationally and operationally. At the same time, we are values-led and base all that we do on good relationships, so you will be joining a big family. Reporting directly to the Regional Director, you will be supported both personally and professionally, benefitting from the strength of a national group supporting your development and that of your staff and school. You will be provided with a strong infrastructure of support from our Finance, HR, Technology and Data Teams, as well as curriculum development from our subject specialists and our United Learning Curriculum Leads.

We are committed to fairness, diversity and inclusion. We are currently working hard to improve representation of black, Asian and minority ethnic leaders at headship level and to raise our proportion of women leaders to match their representation in our wider workforce. Whoever you are, if you have a strong track record of improving young people's education and a drive to do more, we very much look forward to hearing from you.

With best wishes,

Sir Jon Coles
Chief Executive

The School

William Hulme's Grammar School has a long history of providing education to children and young people in South Manchester, dating back to 1887. During its 140 years it has been a grammar school, a fee-paying independent school, and finally became a comprehensive academy when it joined United Learning in 2007. Since joining United Learning, the school has expanded significantly, benefitting from considerable capital investment into its buildings and facilities, including an impressive new Primary Phase building and Sixth Form Centre.

Its most recent inspection found it to be good across the board through all phases, demonstrating the consistently high standards leaders have embedded. However, we believe there is the capability and capacity within William Hulme's Grammar School for it to become a truly exceptional school, supported by the significant and substantial foundations already in place.

With almost 1600 students aged 3-18, the Academy reflects the diverse local community with nearly 50 languages spoken. EHCPs are well above the national average and there are over 50 LACs and PLACs. In addition, approximately a third of students are known to be eligible for free school meals.

The Academy benefits from excellent facilities – its sports, technology and performing arts facilities are modern, well equipped and provide fantastic opportunities for talented and creative students in all manner of activities, both within the curriculum and beyond.

Staff at the Academy work incredibly hard and want the best for their students. This is a thriving and dynamic school where students acknowledge and value the vast range of opportunities that are provided for them. The school aims to live the United Learning values of 'bringing out the best in everyone' and prides itself on being warm, welcoming and supportive. It offers the best of the independent school tradition, such as the House system and a tremendous range of extra-curricular activities.

William Hulme's Grammar School works collaboratively with other United Learning academies in Manchester and Stockport - both primary and secondary. The school also benefits from a highly skilled Executive Business Manager and other cluster back-office support. Educationally, the schools work collaboratively on a range of strategies such as joint insets and CPD twilights.

This is the ideal position for an ambitious and dynamic leader with the vision to create a truly extraordinary school. We will support the successful candidate in ensuring the very highest academic standards, where exemplary behaviour allows teachers and pupils to focus on the core business of teaching and learning.

William Hulme's Grammar School is brimming with potential. It has over 200 members of staff in total, comprised of subject specialist teachers and a range of professional support staff. The position provides a genuinely career-defining and highly rewarding opportunity to lead a school on the next phase of its journey towards excellence. We expect the successful candidate to bring real energy, a fresh perspective, and creative ideas to the school, and for student outcomes to continue their trajectory of improvement. Above all, we are seeking an inspirational and tenacious Principal, committed to the students and staff at William Hulme's Grammar School.

The Principal will be a talented and ambitious leader who will combine the autonomy of running their own school with the benefits of working within a cluster and as part of a national group. United Learning prioritises collaboration, values shared practice and provides high-quality professional development.

United Learning will support the Principal with the expertise of a Regional Director, as well as a highly effective team of subject advisers and Central Support for Finance, HR, Estates and other functions. You will also benefit from our knowledge-rich mastery curriculum which includes a package of common assessments, enabling school leaders to gain a deeper understanding of their students by comparing performance against the thousands of students in other United Learning schools.

The successful candidate will become part of a network of Principals with the support, mutual challenge and sense of camaraderie that brings with it. We are looking for a leader who is aligned to the United Learning Way, which outlines the guiding educational principles of our Trust.

We fully recommend that you take the opportunity for an informal visit prior to making your application to see the school for yourself. Please contact Jane Carter (Jane.Carter@whgs-academy.org), Director of HR and EA to the Principal, to book an appointment.

About United Learning

United Learning is a Group of schools which aims to provide excellent education to children and young people across the country. We seek to improve the life chances of all the children and young people we serve and make it our mission to bring out ‘the best in everyone’ – pupils, staff, parents and the wider community. We uniquely comprise schools in both the state and the independent sectors.

As a group, we can offer more to both staff and young people than any single school could offer alone. The growing range of outstanding group-wide activities that we can provide will mean that more young people will have truly exceptional and inspiring experiences. We believe that our Group contains the most developed relationships and practical interaction between independent and state schools in the country, creating benefits for all the schools involved.

United Learning comprises both United Church Schools Trust, which operates our fee-paying independent schools, and United Learning Trust, which operates our state-funded academies.

As part of United Learning, William Hulme’s Grammar School will share the objective of bringing out ‘the best in everyone’, enabling each student to become a balanced, happy and articulate person with intellectual freedom, confidence, compassion, integrity and a lifelong love of learning.

Our Ethos

Our approach to education is underpinned by a sense of moral purpose and commitment to doing what is right for children and young people. We believe in supporting our colleagues to achieve excellence and in acting with integrity in all our dealings within and beyond the Group. We believe the safety and welfare of all children and young people is paramount. We summarise this ethos as 'the best in everyone'.

This ethos underpins our core values:

AMBITION – to achieve the best for ourselves and others;

CONFIDENCE – to have the courage of our convictions and to take risks in the right cause;

CREATIVITY – to imagine possibilities and make them real;

RESPECT – of ourselves and others in all that we do;

ENTHUSIASM – to seek opportunity, find what is good and pursue talents and interests;

DETERMINATION – to overcome obstacles and achieve success.

As a single organisation, we seek to bring together the best of independent and state sectors, respecting both traditions and learning from each. We believe that each of our schools is and should be distinctive – committed to developing its own strengths and identity while sharing our core values to promote service, compassion and generosity.

Continuing Professional Development

We believe that successful organisations make a priority of developing their staff; all the more so in education, where the people of the organisation are its most important asset. While the development of all staff is important, we make the support and professional development of Heads and senior leaders a particular priority, given the impact that leaders have on the life of staff and pupils alike.

We work on the basis that each of us, however effective, can always improve. The new Principal of William Hulme's Grammar School will be set personal development objectives with the Regional Director each year and will be supported to achieve them. The Principal will also be asked to take a role in supporting the leadership of the whole organisation, working with other Heads in the Group, and sharing ideas and practice with one another. They will also have the benefit of accessing a range of networks, including the Group Education Forum, which brings together Heads from across the Group six times a year. United Learning has also commissioned training programmes from major universities. We provide 360-degree feedback as part of professional development.

We believe that schools are at their best when they are autonomous and able to develop a distinctive ethos, reflecting the needs of their pupils and the context within which they work. The Group can get behind the work of Heads and leaders in schools through creating strong networks, providing outstanding educational support and professional development, and by taking the strain of professional functional support. We aim to ensure that the technology, finance, HR and data support is provided more effectively and efficiently than would otherwise be possible, so that Principals can focus on educational leadership.

The newly appointed Principal at William Hulme's Grammar School will also benefit from a comprehensive induction programme.

Our Framework for Excellence

To achieve our mission, our schools prioritise five key principles:

- The best from everyone
- Powerful knowledge
- Education with character
- Leadership in every role
- Continuous improvement

‘The best from everyone’

Our aim is to bring out ‘the best in everyone’. So, we must expect the best from everyone, all the time. Every child is a special individual, capable of extraordinary things. Who can know the limits of any child’s potential? So, we expect unreasonably – we constantly encourage children to do what they think they can’t, to persist, to work hard and to be at their best.

From every adult we expect the same: that they are at their best, expect unreasonably of themselves, are determined and resilient and pass those expectations on to the children in all they do. We act with the utmost love, care and good faith – the highest standards come with the greatest attention to the wellbeing of all.

‘Powerful knowledge’

Our most important purpose is to teach young people things they would not learn outside school, which free them to think and act more powerfully in their lives. Words and numbers are our most powerful ways of representing the world. Mastery of language and fluent mathematical skills are therefore our top priority. We aim to prepare young people to make a success of their lives: a core entitlement to subject-based learning; the development of talents; an understanding of work and society.

Worthwhile learning is often hard. Inspiring teaching is what gives access to difficult concepts and the thrill of intellectual discovery. Powerful knowledge is not static or backward-looking. It includes the ability to critique, challenge the status quo, think and learn.

‘Education with character’

Academic success is very important. Exam passes are an important aspect of that. But there is more to a good education. Our schools also aim to develop character, compassion and service. Young people are expected to contribute to their school and to society; to try things which they think they cannot do; to persist in the face of difficulty; to become resilient in overcoming obstacles; to manage themselves; to work independently on things which challenge them; to work with others and in teams; to be courageous and caring; to lead.

We want young people to look back on a joyful schooling which has inspired and challenged them, given them wide opportunity and prepared them for the ups and downs of life.

‘Leadership in every role’

Our children are leaders of the future. We expect them to start today – taking advantage of structured opportunities to lead and taking responsibility for themselves and others. Every adult in the school is a leader. In every word, tone and gesture, they set direction and expectation. We expect every adult to take responsibility and the initiative to do what is right for the children.

All those in formal leadership positions create the climate in which others work. They demand the highest standards, build an inclusive performance culture, develop their teams and create the space for others to lead. All leaders listen, grow relationships, act with integrity and care and expect the best from themselves and others in building a happy, confident school.

‘Continuous improvement’

However good we are, we can be better. We constantly look for improvements and implement them with pace. We look for ideas for improvement inside the organisation and out; we observe one another; we steal good ideas with pride and look to make them better; we work together to improve.

We always look at the evidence and are rigorous in evaluating impact. We stop or change things which aren’t working; we improve things which are. We aim for high leverage: high impact for low effort and low cost. We constantly look to have more impact for less cost and effort and to spend every pound wisely.
