Reading Teacher required. To start as soon as possible

Temporary to 24.04.2022

Full time - Main Scale - dependent on experience

We are looking for someone to develop and maintain effective communication links with parents of the children for whom intensive reading support is provided.

Do you have a passion for getting the best out of every child? We are currently seeking a dynamic and enthusiastic individual to join our team.

Rose Hill is an enjoyable and interesting place to work with a brilliant cultural mix and a broad, child-focused curriculum.

A belief in the potential and individuality of every child is crucial: a sense of humour helps too!

Here at Rose Hill we truly believe in putting the children first and at the heart of everything we do. Our children are enthusiastic learners, they like to ask questions and think carefully about the answers. Our children like to be involved in the community and in all aspects of school life.

Joining our team will provide you with the opportunity to progress in your career, not only through continued professional development, but also through being part of a journey to shape the school into a learning community for all.

We're looking for a colleague who:

- is passionate about working with young children
- loves to tell stories
- from their knowledge of children can help plan innovative and exciting learning opportunities
- is highly motivated, with high expectations of self and children's achievements and behaviour
- has good interpersonal skills

Is this you? Then please apply!

Our children have said they would like the following in their supporting adults:

- kindness
- fairness
- fun
- provides us with learning chances and challenges
- sets a good example
- shows us respect
- will want to build positive relationships with us
- ensures no-one is left out
- respects our Values
- trusts us

- gives us individual attention when we need it

This is what the children said they would like to offer to you:

- School Values
- good relationships between staff and children
- a Headteacher who listens to us
- fairness
- respect
- a forest school on site (still growing)
- Zones of Engagement
- the best school ever

We invite you to take an opportunity to come and work at this vibrant school and contribute to making it even better!
