Woodlands Academy is a vibrant and diverse one form entry school at the heart of the local community. We are proud to be an inclusive, nurturing, caring and successful school community that is ambitious for all its pupils, working with their families to help them thrive and acquire the foundational skills and knowledge they need to meet their full potential.

The Governing Board of Woodlands Academy is looking to appoint a Classroom Teacher for Reception.

This is an opportunity to be a member of a strong and dedicated team.

We are looking for a teacher who:

- Is creative, innovative and passionate about teaching and learning
- Is enthusiastic and engaging with children in an Early Years setting
- Is able to motivate both children and colleagues
- Is able to work effectively and efficiently as part of a team
- Wants to make a positive difference to the school community
- Has a commitment to safeguarding and supporting those with additional needs

In return we offer:

- A truly vibrant and diverse community school
- A supportive and collaborative working ethos
- Dedicated and supportive staff, parents and governors
- Opportunities to work with colleagues from other settings
- Access to CPD opportunities through Ealing Learning Partnership
