The Alec Reed Academy is an Ofsted 'Good' school and an exciting place to work. In July 2018 it received praise from Ofsted who described it as 'at the heart of its community, an inclusive school with leadership providing excellent role models and maintaining the good quality of education since the last inspection in 2015'.

We seek to appoint a Religious Studies Teacher who can enthuse, engage, motivate and challenge students to raise achievement at all levels up to KS5. Our Humanities department is a well-resourced curriculum area with eight colleagues. They are an energetic and highly professional team who are extremely effective and respected by the pupils. The position of Religious Studies Teacher is to start in September. We are located in Northolt, Ealing.

The position of Religious Studies Teacher will be of interest both to experienced and Early Career Teachers (ECT). An attractive £2,000 incentive is on offer for ECT's after a successful probation period as well as the knowledge that our Humanities department is a strong department with a breadth of experience supporting successful ECT's.

As an Investor in People, the Academy offers excellent career and professional development. We have great Trustees, staff feel valued, enjoy opportunities for additional paid responsibilities, and there is scope to influence autonomy. The Academy is in outer London but with Inner London pay, Teachers Pension, free on-site parking, free use of the gym, subsidised meals and family friendly policies including dependents entitlement. Regular nominated staff rewards and free breakfasts are also welcomed by staff.
