Special School Expansion

Are you looking for a new challenge and exciting opportunity? This could be the job for you.

Part of the WMAT, Aspire Academy is a special school for children with SEMH identified as their primary need. As the school grows, with an exciting £2m development we are looking to appoint an outstanding EHCP Reviews Manager. The successful candidate will lead on the delivery of the EHCP reviews across the school developing highly effective processes alongside senior colleagues.

This role is perfect for those with experience of delivering and improving EHCP review processes or someone who has a passion for supporting vulnerable children and an enthusiasm to learn.

The successful candidate will:

- Be experienced and/or interested in SEN practices and provision with extensive knowledge of how to meet the needs of pupils with SEN or the capacity to gain this quickly
- Be experienced in developing and implementing effective processes
- Have excellent communication skills and build positive relationships with young people and their families
- Be flexible, proactive and positive

in return we offer:

- A supportive and enthusiastic staff team
- Fantastic students and a vibrant school community
- A school committed to excellence that values staff and students
- A full and varied CPD programme
- Wider opportunities to be involved across our multi academy trust

Please apply online.

Closing date for applications is 11:59pm Thursday 10th June 2021.

Interview date to be confirmed.

No CVs or agencies please

If you are interested and would like to discuss further or visit the school, please contact Peter Headeach, Principal, who will be delighted to hear from you.

PLEASE NOTE: Early applications are encouraged. Aspire Academy reserves the right to interview and appoint prior to the closing date of the advertisement, should the School be able to appoint an appropriate candidate.
