

Privacy Notice (How we use job applicants' information)

This privacy notice details and explains what personal data we will collect, share, store, and use (referred to as "processing" in the data protection legislation).

The relevant legislation governing data privacy in the UK is:

- The Data Protection Act 2018
- The UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR)
- The Data (Use and Access) Act 2025 (DUUA)

The categories of information that we process

These include:

- Contact details
- Copies of Right to Work documentation
- References
- Evidence of qualifications
- Employment records, including work history, job titles, training records and professional memberships
- online/social media checks at the shortlisting stage

We may also process (when appropriate) information about you that falls into 'special categories' of more sensitive personal data. This may include information about:

- Race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religious beliefs, and political opinions
- Disability and access requirements
- Photographs and CCTV footage
- Criminal convictions and offences
- Data about you that we have received from other organisations such as other schools, local authorities and the Disclosure and Barring Service Service in respect of criminal offence data.

This list is not exhaustive, to access the current list of categories of information we process please see the school's Data Map, sometimes called the Record of Processing Activity (RoPA).

Why we collect and use workforce information

We use job applicants' data to:

- a) enable us to confirm relevant experience and qualifications
- b) facilitate Safer Recruitment in accordance with our safeguarding obligations towards pupils

Health & Wellbeing
Beacon School

Our school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all children, staff and visitors. In order to sustain high levels of safeguarding, visitors and volunteers are expected to share this commitment.

- c) enable us to monitor equalities
- d) to ensure access requirements can be met for candidates that need them.

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the legal basis / bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

Article 6 (1) (c). processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject." and 6 (1) (e) - processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller"

In addition, concerning any special category data we rely on Article 9:

- Article 9 (2) (a) the data subject has given explicit consent to the processing of those personal data for one or more specified purposes,
- 9 (2) (c) To protect the vital interests of the individual;
- 9 (2) (f) in the event of legal claims or judicial acts,
- 9 (2) (i) As required for purpose of public health (with a basis in law)

We do not currently process any job applicants' data through automated decision-making or profiling. Should this change in the future we will amend the privacy notice to include the rationale and your right to object to it.

Collecting job applicants' information

We collect personal information from individuals directly, e.g., from application forms and references. Most data held will have come from you, but we may hold data about you from:

- Local authorities
- Government departments or agencies
- Police forces, courts, or tribunals

Data is essential for the school to function. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with UK GDPR, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this and that you can change your mind at any time.

Storing workforce information

We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please see the Data Map/RoPA and the Information and Records Management (IRMS) Toolkit for Schools IRMS Schools Toolkit - Information and Records Management Society

Health & Wellbeing Beacon School

Our school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all children, staff and visitors. In order to sustain high levels of safeguarding, visitors and volunteers are expected to share this commitment.

Who we share job applicants' information with

We do not routinely share information about you with any third parties without consent unless the law requires us, or our policies allow us to do so. Where we are legally required, to share personal information or our policies comply with the UK data protection law) we may share it with:

- our Local Authority (LA) Children's Services e.g., for safeguarding concerns
- Service providers such as HR (Human Resources) and recruitment advisers and consultants
- Employment and recruitment agencies

This list is not exhaustive.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. However, please note that references provided during the recruitment process will not be routinely shared with the applicant, in line with the employment reference exemption under the Data Protection Act 2018 and UK GDPR. This exemption allows us to withhold the content of references where necessary to protect the confidentiality of the information provided. To make a request for your personal information, contact the Head Teacher / School Business Manager or the Data Protection Officer.

You also have the right to:

- to ask us for access to information about you that we hold
- to have your personal data rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- to request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- to restrict our processing of your personal data (i.e., permitting its storage but no further processing)
- to object to direct marketing (including profiling) and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics
- not to be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect on you

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

For further information on how to request access to personal information held centrally by the Department for Education (DfE), please see the 'How Government uses your data' section of this notice.

Withdrawal of consent

Where we are processing your personal data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting info@adel-st-john.leeds.sch.uk
