

Primary Science & Computing Lead

MPS/UPS - Inner London plus TLR2a

Responsible for: Science curriculum (primary), Standards of Achievement, Teaching and Learning

Are you an excellent teacher looking to join an inspiring, committed and inclusive team? We are looking for a Primary Science & Computing Lead who is passionate about their subject, someone who will excite and engage pupils in their learning and lay strong foundations for success in the next stage of their journey. Our pupils are happy, confident young people, it's our responsibility to see they excel.

Woodmansterne School & Sixth Form is set within a diverse and vibrant community; we benefit from this rich variety of cultures and traditions which form the bedrock of our inclusive ethos. We are looking to employ an exceptional class teacher who shares our values and determination to deliver an excellent, inclusive education that enables our young people to thrive and succeed in the learning and life.

We are looking for an excellent Primary Science & Computing Lead with:

- Very high expectations of what can be achieved;
- Proven successful teaching and achievement of outstanding pupil progress with an understanding of how children learn and the complexities of this process;
- Experience of successful leadership skills or evidence of developing leadership skills at a primary, secondary or all-through school within a multicultural community;
- Knowledge of relevant developments and innovations in the primary curriculum and pedagogy to enhance school practice, pupil progress and standards of achievement;
- Knowledge of the current educational issues and characteristics of effective primary and/or secondary schools and strategies for raising standards and the progress and achievement of all pupils;
- The skills to work successfully as a team member establishing effective working relationships and flexible working practices; contributing to high staff morale through the enthusiasm, drive and determination to inspire others and achieve the highest standards;
- Experience of following direction and working in collaboration with colleagues, parents, pupils and the school community;
- The ability to be kind, positive and committed to the school's inclusive ethos;
- The ability to be flexible, calm, work under pressure and manage change effectively.

Our strong and experienced leadership team are committed to providing an exceptional and enriching education for all our young people.
