

Job Description Science Teacher

Salary:	Main Scale
Hours:	Full-time
Starting:
Contract:	Permanent
Responsible to:	Head of Science
More Information:	This post is suitable for a Newly Qualified Teacher

Purpose

- To teach Science to an outstanding standard to all KS3 and KS4 year groups
- To inspire students to consider becoming scientists
- To support the HOD in raising and maintaining standards, attainment and progress in Science
- To provide a safe, inclusive learning environment for all students
- To ensure consistently high levels of professionalism are maintained

Professional Standards

- To adhere to the Teachers' Standards (2011) at all times for:
1) Teaching and 2) Personal and Professional Conduct
- To support the aims and ethos of the school as defined through school policies and the school improvement plan

Teaching Responsibilities

- To teach Science to an outstanding standard to students of all abilities in KS3 and KS4
- To adhere to the Teachers' Standards (2011) for teaching at all times
- To ensure that all lessons are delivered in line with department schemes of work and school policies
- To deal with behaviour quickly and effectively in accordance with the school behaviour policy with a focus on the restorative conversation
- To adhere to the school policy on the marking of work, setting of homework and assessment of student progress
- To attend appropriate after school meetings and parents' evenings
- To work closely with SFL, Student Support Team, HOYs and other colleagues to personalise learning to meet the needs of specific students
- To support the Head of Science in delivering the subject and school improvement plan and in the preparation and development of schemes of work
- To participate in Science-based enrichment activities

Pastoral Care Responsibilities

- As a tutor, to support the overall progress and personal development of students in your tutor group
- To support the tutor and personal development programme
- To support your HOY in providing enrichment activities for the year group

Other Responsibilities

- To support the school in achieving its vision
- To ensure effective communication with parents and carers
- To undertake supervisory duties as required
- To undertake all training as required
- To ensure policies of safeguarding, health and safety and GDPR are followed at all times