Dear Applicant,

Science Teacher – Permanent Full Time

Thank you for your interest in the post of Science Teacher. The London Nautical School is a totally unique boy's school right in the heart of London. The opportunities available to staff and pupils are unparalleled. We are looking for a Science Teacher who has the drive, passion, resilience and the desire to make a real difference. We look forward to receiving your completed application.

The London Nautical School uses a variety of recruitment selection methods which offer applicants increased opportunities to demonstrate their skills and experience. If you are shortlisted, the selection process will include a lesson observation as well as a formal panel interview. If you have any questions about the recruitment process, or if you have a disability and have particular requirements you would like us to consider to assist you in the process please contact us via email HR@LNS.org.uk.

If you would like to visit the school prior to applying contact Ms. Claire James via email (cjames@LNS.org.uk) to make the necessary arrangements.

The post is 'exempt' under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. The successful candidate for this post will be asked to apply for an Enhanced Disclosure. Please note that in relation to Section G on the application form, if you do have a criminal record or pending prosecutions, your declaration of this should not be sent with the application form but should be sent under separate confidential cover to Rob Melia School Business Manager. Please ensure that your full name and post title is included with any information sent. Please read the enclosed guidelines for further information.
