Are you capable of being a leader who can inspire, motivate and lead improvement?

'Leaders have an accurate view of the strengths of the school and the areas that need to develop further. Planning for improvement is good. Leaders check progress with the plan closely to ensure that actions are having the right impact at the required pace' Ofsted March 2018

Governors wish to appoint an outstanding and experienced teacher to be Second in Area:
Teacher of History within Humanities

We are looking for a teacher with:

- proven leadership and skills in improving outcomes in KS3 or 4
- a genuine passion for History
- proven skills regarding organisation, communication with staff, students and parents
- a clear understanding of how to raise standards & secure first class teaching and progress
- promoting high achievement and high expectation.

'New leaders to the school are skilled and ambitious' Ofsted March 2018

This demanding role is a very exciting opportunity where you can make a difference. Raising the attainment and progress in Humanities is a part of our whole school improvement. This role is a key area for improvement in our transition to good and outstanding.

The school is committed to safeguarding & promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
