Are you flexible, patient, caring and confident with children?

Lakeside Nursery & Primary Academy are looking for a 1:1 Learning Support Assistant to support two children in KS2 who have an EHCP.

You will support both individuals and small groups of children with their learning. For this, you will need patience, resourcefulness and have high expectations of learning and behaviour. You should also be enthusiastic and have good communication skills, with a genuine passion for children and what motivates them. Experience of supporting children with additional needs is a benefit, but is not essential.

We Offer:

- A fun, friendly working environment and a supportive team
 - A competitive pension scheme
 - Opportunities for Training and progression
- An incredible range of employee benefits (including access to Perkbox)

Lakeside Nursery and Primary School is a warm and friendly school where children are at the heart of everything we do. We can offer you a dedicated and friendly staff team; training opportunities in key skills and children who enjoy learning and are positive about their school. Lakeside is a founding member of the Kite Academy Trust.
