Nancealverne School are seeking to recruit an exceptional and inspirational SEN Classroom Teacher with a specialism in PMLD to work with the school leadership team to drive school improvement and to provide students with an outstanding education.

We are currently looking for an SEN teacher for a full time position. In particular, we would love to hear from teachers with experience of working with students with complex needs-who are able to deliver a multisensory curriculum.

You will need to possess the desire and motivation to make a difference to our students' lives. We have high aspirations for all our children and young people and believe that all of our students are capable of making outstanding progress; we strive to appoint individuals who share our belief.

For the right candidate, we also have an opportunity for a Teacher to work with the school leadership team to drive the improvement at the school and a skilled communicator with the drive to work collaboratively to achieve our whole school vision.

Please refer to the job description and person specification for full details of the role and the skills/experience required.

We value our employees and offer excellent training and support along with an Employee Assistance Programme and other well-being benefits.

We are committed to safeguarding children and the successful applicant will be required to undertake an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check.

Application packs are available from the Nancealverne School Website (www.nancealverne.org.uk) and should be returned to:
