

SENCO

To raise educational achievement by leading and co-ordinating provision for pupils with special educational needs and the disadvantaged.

Person Specification

We are looking for a candidate who is

- A strong leader and committed to providing the highest standards of provision for SEND pupils.
- Have clear knowledge and experience in all issues relating to the safeguarding of children
- Experienced in rigorous tracking and monitoring of children's progress and working within the SEND Code of Practice.
- An excellent communicator, with a strong commitment to working in partnership and developing good relationships with parents, governors, local authorities, external agencies and the community.
- Experience in co-ordinating Annual Reviews and reviews of EHCPs where appropriate and attend / chair when necessary.
- Experienced in managing and leading a committed team of enthusiastic Teaching Assistants
- Committed to developing their own specialist knowledge and has an excellent understanding of how children learn
- Passionate about promoting inclusion across the school to raise aspiration and achievement
- Flexible in their work ethic and willing to commit to be engaged in school life to the full. A team player.