

Peacehaven Community School

SENCO INFORMATION

Dear Applicant,

I am delighted that you are interested in leading our exceptional team at Peacehaven Community School into the next phase of its journey. I hope you will take a look at our PCS Website and PCS Prospectus as well as taking the time to consider the information enclosed with this letter.

Peacehaven Community School is a proudly comprehensive and fully inclusive school. This means diverse teaching opportunities, providing for students with a very broad spectrum of need. It includes a Special Facility with a Speech, Language and Communication specialism.

Standards of teaching and learning at Peacehaven Community School are high. There is a consistent approach to lesson planning, teaching and marking at the school and an explicit focus on differentiation and quality of work in books. At the heart of our vision for the school is a relentless drive to ensure that all pupils make good progress in every subject. Our curriculum is broad and balanced, offering courses to suit pupils of all abilities.

Peacehaven Community School was judged as "Good" by Ofsted in October 2018. The school has gone from strength to strength in recent years and is proudly oversubscribed at Key Stage 3. We are committed to securing excellence in learning and progress for all students through exciting and stimulating teaching, and a rich curriculum which encourages a love of learning. We want all students to have high expectations of themselves and to develop as enthusiastic, creative and positive young people who display good personal, social, emotional and spiritual development.

At Peacehaven Community School, we know all of our pupils and take the time to support and guide them towards targets and goals that are realistic and personalised. Our motto is 'Aspire, Achieve, Believe' where achievement is a focus for all. We encourage students to aspire and be their best. We promote self-confidence and belief, supporting students to face the challenges future life brings, alongside an awareness and understanding of the values of our society and other cultures. We seek to celebrate our pupils' talents and skills at every opportunity and are proud of what we achieve together as a school community. To achieve our vision, we place the recruitment, retention and professional development of excellent teachers as a top priority.

Peacehaven Community School is located in the town of Peacehaven, seven miles from the vibrant town of Brighton, situated on the south coast above the chalk cliffs of the South Downs. Our modern, well equipped building has exceptional facilities offering an inspiring modern learning environment, with well resourced classroom spaces.

Peacehaven Community School has a traditional family culture combined with an ambitious ethos for excellence. It is part of a very exciting multi-academy trust focused on school improvement, collaboration and continuous learning. Swale Academies Trust is currently made up of sixteen other schools, both primary and secondary, located in East Sussex and Kent. The Trust provides unparalleled opportunities for professional development and will grow further in the future.

Peacehaven Community School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All posts are subject to an enhanced DBS check. As a school dedicated to the principle of equal opportunities, we aim to ensure that staff recruitment is fair and open to all regardless of age, social class, disability, religion, ethnic origin or sexual orientation within the context of a detailed person specification.

Yours sincerely,

Ms Rachel Henocq Headteacher

- To report accidents and hazards.
- To report deficiencies in the employer's Health and Safety protection arrangements.

Professional Standards and additional responsibilities for SENCO

The core purpose of the SENCO is to ensure the effective implementation of the Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Strategy (SEND) for pupils at the school. This includes ensuring statutory requirements are fulfilled and ensuring the school follows identified best practice.

Meeting the above will require you to meet the National Standards for Special Educational Needs Coordinators. (Subject to change to reflect national legislation)

JOB DESCRIPTION

You will also be part of a team which ensures the needs of vulnerable groups are met at the School.

Specific responsibilities;

- Effective implementation of the SEND
- Leadership of the School's core special educational needs team.
- Monitoring the progress of pupils with identified special educational needs and evaluating the effectiveness of teaching and learning.
- Work closely with other staff at the school to ensure that vulnerable groups are effectively provided for to ensure that they make at least expected progress.
- Coordinate, with the support of the unit leaders, entrants into our specialist provisions.
- Coordination of access arrangements for examinations.
- Liaison with outside agencies as required including health and education.
- Liaison with parents.
- Transition arrangements for pupils with special educational needs.

Line management responsibilities will include;

- The leaders of the two specialist unit provisions in the school for PD (Physical Disability) and SpLD (Speech and Language Department.
- The Inclusion Manager who provides administration for LAC and young Carers.
- Ensuring the efficient deployment of teaching assistants.
- Leadership of those staff who teach within the school's Intervention Unit.

In addition to the above you will need to work with other members of staff at the school who hold responsibility for vulnerable groups, CAF and inclusion.

Working Time

The following is extracted from the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document.

- A teacher employed full-time shall be available for work for 195 days in any school year, of which 190 days shall be days which they may be required to teach pupils in addition to carrying out other duties; and those 195 days will be specified by the head teacher.
- Such a teacher shall be available to perform duties at such times and such places as may be specified by the head teacher for 1265 hours in any school year, those hours to be allocated reasonably throughout those days in the school year on which they are required to be available for work.
- Such a teacher shall work such additional hours as may be needed to enable them to discharge effectively their professional duties, including, in particular, the marking of pupils' work, the writing of reports on pupils and the preparation of lessons, teaching materials and teaching programmes. The amount of time required for this purpose beyond the 1265 hours and the time outside the 1265 specified hours at which duties shall be performed shall not be defined by the governors but shall depend upon the work needed to discharge the teacher's duties.

A summary of the directed time for teachers as allocated by the Headteacher is detailed in the staff handbook.

The Working Time Regulations 1998

All teachers are subject to the EU Working Time Regulations which are described in paragraph 114 of DfEE Circular No. 12/99.

The duties / responsibilities of this post may vary from time to time according to the changing needs of the Trust services.
