

VACANCY AT UFFCULME SCHOOL

Job title:	ENGLISH TEACHER	Reporting to:	SLT
Hours:	Full time	Grade:	Main/Upper Pay Scale plus SEN Allowance

Uffculme School is looking for a committed, skilled and enthusiastic English teacher to join its team. The school has grown rapidly over the past three years and the number of classes has been increased to help accommodate the number of pupils attending Uffculme.

Uffculme School offers co-education for children and young people of the ages 3 to 19 years from all parts of the city. Our students represent the wide cultural mix that makes up the general population of Birmingham. We are a successful school with a long and proven track record of providing high quality education for young people with a primary diagnosis of ASD. We currently cater for over 250 children over three sites.

The successful candidate for this post will be able to evidence their contribution to date in school and community environments in teaching English, as well as demonstrate their ability to work as part of a wider team to support staff in achieving the best possible outcomes for our students.

This is an ideal opportunity for someone with a passion for ensuring that all children have access to high quality education, tailored to their individual needs, who also wants to develop their skills as a leader.

We require a candidate who

- ✓ Is a qualified English teacher – delivering English to GCSE level
- ✓ Experience of working in a Special school
- ✓ Significant experience of working with children and young people with Special Needs, specifically ASC
- ✓ Experience of working with teaching assistant to deliver effective lessons
- ✓ Ability and confidence to deliver other curriculum subjects as necessary
- ✓ Be able to work under pressure and meet deadlines
- ✓ Understand the need for confidentiality
- ✓ Be familiar with the unique processes, challenges and opportunities present in Birmingham
- ✓ Be an excellent communicator with the ability to show sensitivity and objectivity in dealing with confidential issues
