CONTRACTED HOURS	Full time
LOCATION	Robert Kett Primary School
GRADE / SCALE POINT – SALARY	MPR/UPR plus SEN allowance
REPORTING TO	Headteacher

INTRODUCTION

All Unity Schools Partnership schools embrace a strong set of values which ensure that pupils learn how to take their place in modern Britain. Every member of staff is required to uphold and promote the values of the Trust in every aspect of their work performance.

All members of teaching staff are responsible personally and collectively for supporting students in becoming confident individuals, successful learners and responsible citizens, through:

- Modelling the core values of the school and wider Unity Schools Partnership (“the Trust”) at all times;
- Nurturing students’ passions and interests and stimulating their intellectual curiosity;
- Continuously raising students’ aspirations and self-esteem;
- Contributing to the wider range of opportunities offered by and for the school community;
- Assuming responsibility (as required) for the learning progress of a specific group of individual students;
- Ensuring high outcomes for a cohort of students
- Intentionally developing Students’ Leadership Awards Skills;
- Actively supporting and promoting Student voice.

All teachers are required to meet the national standards for teachers according to their role. In addition, teachers on the Upper Pay Range are required to continue to meet the relevant standards and show sustained and substantial improvement.

JOB PURPOSE

To actively pursue the agreed aims of the school and wider Trust, maintaining an outstanding educational ethos, care for the pupils and respect for colleagues whilst undertaking all duties in a professional manner. There is an expectation all staff colleagues will secure a good or better education for all pupils and the continuous improvement of teaching and learning in the school.

To provide specialist advice and support to staff and parents in relation to children and young people with SEND within mainstream schools and educational settings.

Primarily you will support students by planning, adapting and delivering high quality provision to students with wide-ranging complex SEND needs across all four prime areas of need: communication and interaction; cognition and learning; SEMH; physical development.

KEY TASKS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Specialist Provision:

1. Take a lead in the assessment, identification and provision of support for children and young people and young people with SEND as outlined in SEND Code of Practice (2015);
2. To monitor and report upon the provision made for such children and young people within mainstream schools/settings, maintaining up to date records to track their progress;
3. To provide practical support, training and guidance to schools and settings in the development of a whole school, inclusive approach to meeting special educational needs;
4. To provide specialist advice to other professionals to support them in their role regarding children and young people with such needs;
5. To contribute to multi-agency support for families, by liaising closely with other professionals and organisations, to establish and maintain a wide network of communications around individual children and young people and their families;
6. To contribute to the education, health and care needs assessment process for individual children and young people and young people and provide educational advice as appropriate;
7. To inform schools and settings of their responsibilities under the Children's and Families Act, 2014, the SEND Code of Practice, (updated 2015) and the Equality Act 2010, and support them in meeting these;
8. To contribute to specialist teaching programmes, including parent programmes, and work with other professionals to develop suitable provision for children and young people with SEN;
9. To support schools in the development of effective school-based practice in relation to pupils with SEN through the provision of advice, support and time limited specialist intervention;
10. To support the transition of children and young people with SEN between settings;
11. To initiate, lead or contribute to regular child and young person focused meetings, ensuring the voice of children, young people and families is represented;
12. Lead, develop and enhance the teaching practice of others with regard to children with special educational needs (SEN) across the school. Liaise with and advise colleagues, both teachers and teaching assistants, to impact positively on the educational progress of children with SEN across the school;
13. Co-ordinate provision for children with SEN, including the work and day-to-day line management of teaching assistants;
14. Promote inclusion and equal opportunities;
15. Plan a sufficient level of resources needed to implement the policies related to children with SEN and maintain these resources within budgetary limitations. Ensure that the allocation of financial resources for SEN is evaluated annually;
16. Assist the SENCD Co in ensuring accurate records of all pupils;
17. Ensure that pupils' progress is monitored regularly;
18. Ensure that there is regular liaison with the parents / carers of pupils;
19. Keep up-to-date with knowledge of SEN. Be aware of professional development opportunities relating to special educational needs and to provide staff with details of these opportunities where relevant;
20. Liaise with external agencies including the Educational Psychology service and other support agencies, medical and social services and voluntary bodies;
21. Liaise with other educational establishments as appropriate, for example when pupils transfer to another school;
22. Prepare for and attend planning meetings; ensure decisions taken at these meetings are implemented;
23. Regularly monitor and evaluate the unit's provision, reporting outcomes to the Headteacher and Trust;
24. Contribute to the Improvement Planning process in relation to Trust SEN provision.
