Tall Oaks Academy Trust is recruiting a Class Teacher for our brand-new SEND Hub based at Castle Wood Academy.

Reports to: Inclusion Team SENDCo

Salary: UPS1 + SEN1 Allowance

Tall Oaks Academy Trust is a Multi-Academy Trust responsible for three (one junior and two primary) schools in Gainsborough, Lincolnshire. The schools are united by their commitment to the principles and values of the Trust and a common belief that collaboration and co-operation benefits pupils, parents, staff and the wider community.

What skills and experience we're looking for

A broad subject knowledge and experience of working with pupils with SEND is essential; we encourage applications from creative thinkers, team players and people who relate well to challenging students while having a student-centred approach to apply.

This is a great opportunity to join a great team and have a significant impact on the development of the Hub and the lives of the students who access it.

The role will include:
- To plan and deliver personalised lessons for pupils in the Mainstream SEND Hub helping them access a tailored curriculum that supports their learning and personal development needs as outlined in their EHCPs.
- To contribute to pupils' academic, social, and emotional development, empowering them to gain confidence and independence in both school and community settings.
- As part of a dedicated Mainstream Hub team, the teacher will collaborate closely with Support Assistants, mainstream staff, and external professionals to foster an inclusive, nurturing learning environment
- Applicants must be outstanding and motivated and able to demonstrate a commitment, initiative and a can-do approach. They must be willing to make a contribution.

We can offer:
- School Teachers' Pay and Conditions
- An ethos which promotes improvement through excellent professional development opportunities
- The chance to teach in a consistent and positive school which fully supports its staff
- A supportive, friendly and kind team of professionals

- Well-behaved children who are keen to learn
- A strong commitment to the physical, emotional and mental well-being of staff, pupils and families
- An Academy Trust that is committed to nurture and academic progress in equal measure
- A commitment to supporting Teacher's workload and well-being

If you would like to come and have a look round, please email recruitment@talloaksacademy.co.uk and arrangements will be made.
