About The Role

Are you passionate about teaching children with special educational needs and disabilities? Do you want to be part of a successful team making a real difference to children? Our dedicated staff provide positive and creative learning opportunities in an environment which promotes curiosity, enjoyment and a thirst for challenge. Children at Porters thrive due to our commitment to excellence and care.

Our children deserve the best, so if you are an excellent teacher with high expectations for every learner, who can inspire, motivate and make learning fun then our children need you.

As part of Portico Academy Trust, Porters Grange Primary School can offer you:

- A friendly and supportive atmosphere where everyone is valued and everyone matters
- A nurturing environment with wonderful children who want to learn
- High quality professional development
- Opportunities for cross phase work
- Support and collaboration across our Trust
- A well-resourced school

We recognise continuous service from previous teaching employment

Please don't take our word for it. Come and arrange a visit to see for yourself. We would love to show you our children at work.
