

The Charter School North Dulwich

Job Description

Job Title: Primary-trained SEND Teacher (KS3 Interventions – Maths specialism)

Location: The Charter School North Dulwich, SE24 9HL

Salary: MPS/UPS + SEN Allowance (depending on experience)

Contract: Part time (0.6) one-year contract (Term-time only considered)

Key Responsibilities

1. Teaching and Interventions

- Plan and deliver high-impact academic interventions (particularly in numeracy) for pupils with EHCPs or significant learning needs.
- Use primary pedagogical approaches to support KS3 pupils working below age-related expectations.
- Adapt teaching methods and resources to address a range of SEND, including DLD, dyslexia, autism, ADHD, and cognition and learning needs.

2. Team Teaching and Classroom Support

- Collaborate with subject teachers to team-teach and scaffold access to mainstream curriculum content.
- Model effective differentiation strategies and promote the use of inclusive practices within lessons.
- Provide targeted in-class support where necessary to promote engagement, understanding, and independence.

3. Pupil Progress and Assessment

- Monitor and assess pupil progress against individual learning plans and intervention targets.
- Contribute to the development and review of EHCPs, SEND Support Plans, and Personalised Learning Profiles.
- Maintain high-quality records of teaching, intervention outcomes, and pupil feedback.

4. Professional Collaboration

- Work closely with the SENCo, Assistant SENCo, and wider SEND team to plan support provision and share best practice.

- Liaise with parents/carers and external professionals (e.g., EPs, SALTs) to ensure joined-up approaches to support.
  - Participate in staff training and CPD relevant to SEND and inclusive teaching.
