An exciting and crucial opportunity for a highly motivated and committed SENDCO has arisen at Carisbrooke College. The Special Educational Needs Coordinator, with the support of the Executive Headteacher and Head of School is responsible for inspiring and motivating the school community to develop effective ways of overcoming barriers to learning and promoting effective teaching and learning for children with specific needs or vulnerabilities. This role is also the Designated Teacher for Looked After Children. This is a key senior role for the school, and the successful applicant will be directly involved in driving the school forward.

In addition to our ability to support students in our mainstream environments, we also support a resourced provisions for students who require additional support to access mainstream. The Einstein Centre caters for 16 students across years 7 to 11 with a diagnosis of Autistic Spectrum Condition (ASC), and who need additional and more specialist support.

Carisbrooke College is part of HISP MAT (Hampshire, Isle of Wight, Southampton and Portsmouth). We believe in building excellent educational environments that inspire and unlock potential in all of its school communities. There are multiple schools within the Trust, covering the age ranges from nursery to 19 with plans to expand and grow quickly across Hampshire, the Isle of Wight, Southampton and Portsmouth.

If you feel you have what it takes to be part of our dynamic team, we would be delighted to hear from you.

If you have any questions about the role, please contact Karen Begley, Head of School, in the first instance. An appointment for you to come and look around the school and meet the Senior Leaders can be arranged.
