A unique and exciting opportunity has arisen for a passionate school SENCO to lead on the school's priorities to support each pupil to reach their full potential; promoting high standards of teaching and learning, facilitating pupil achievement and progression, and ensuring effective inclusion for pupils with special educational needs. This is an exceptional opportunity to work within a vibrant atmosphere and a supportive setting.

School

Primley Wood Primary School is a wonderful diverse school in an excellent new environment. The multi faith, values-led ethos of the school is cherished and a foundation to flourishing in life.

You will have the opportunity to collaborate with and be supported by leaders from the Nishkam Schools Multi-Academy Trust (NSMAT). NSMAT is a DfE flagship high performing Trust of 4 primaries and 2 secondaries across 4 regions.

Our children are a delight to teach, the school has excellent resources, our teachers are enthusiastic and hardworking, and the support team is dedicated to the wellbeing of all students. We opened in September 2013 as a one-form entry school, now with nursery provision.

Our Expectations are that you will:

- determine the strategic development of special educational needs (SEND) policy and provision in the school as well as for Pupil Premium pupils
- be responsible for day-to-day operation of the SEND policy and co-ordination of specific provision to support individual pupils with SEND or a disability
- provide professional guidance to colleagues, working closely with staff, parents and other agencies
- believe all pupils can and will achieve exceptionally
- build an environment through virtues-led education that encourages compassion, humility, service; and recognises all humanity as one
- ensure excellence in learning, teaching and achievement throughout the curriculum within the context of a faith inspired, virtues-led school
- ensure that standards of teaching and learning are a benchmark for excellence
- nurture a culture that cherishes childhood, stimulates the spirit of adventure and ignites a passion for lifelong learning
- develop and maintain the support and active involvement of parents in their children's learning
- report to the Headteacher

We will offer you:

- A very warm and welcoming team
- Hardworking and dedicated colleagues who are prepared to give selflessly for the benefit of the students
- Supportive parents, carers and community
- A committed and fully involved Governing Body
- An inspiring learning environment
- Wide-ranging opportunities for professional development
- Terms and conditions similar to other academies and schools

Primley Wood Primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share in this commitment. Any successful applicant will be required to undertake an Enhanced DBS check.
