Are you an experienced Senior Achievement Support Officer ready to make a difference in the lives of young learners? Westcott Primary School is seeking a dedicated individual to join us in providing exceptional education to our children.

As a Senior Achievement Support Officer at Westcott Primary School, you will:

- Cover classes across the school to ensure continuity of learning
- Plan and provide engaging lessons tailored to pupils' needs across various classes.
- Deliver quality interventions to support children's learning and development.
- Work closely with children in early reading and phonics, fostering a love for literacy.
- Assessing pupils progress and discussing outcomes with teachers, parents and carers.

We are looking for someone who is:

- Experienced in delivering high-quality instruction.
- Creative and adaptable, with a passion for education.
- Able to work collaboratively with colleagues to meet the diverse needs of our children.

We look forward to welcoming you to our team at Westcott Primary School! Visits to the school are welcomed and encouraged. Please contact the school on 01482 783576 to book a visit.
