Guidance notes

When you apply...

... we are sure you will realise our need, as a respected and responsible local authority, to make sure we employ people with high standards of integrity.

Your written application is our only basis for shortlisting for interview, so it is important that you complete it in a way that does you full justice. You should answer all the questions and give us your full employment history. Tell us everything you think we need to know to assess you properly for the job.

The following suggestions will help you to do this.

- The skills and competence page of the application form refers to the main responsibilities in your current and previous jobs. You should also describe any skills you have gained that are relevant to the job for which you will be applying. If you are a school or college leaver who has little work experience, do tell us about your school or college courses – we're interested.
- A person specification is included with your application form. It will tell you more about the skills and qualities we seek. To complete your application effectively, you should say how you meet the person specification, using examples from previous jobs or courses. Telling us about your abilities will help us make a better decision when selecting candidates for interview.
- Please ensure your application form is clearly legible and written in black ink. This helps us if we need to photocopy it.

Regrettably, there are rare occasions where people give us false information, to try to secure employment. As a result, we thoroughly check the information provided by applicants through references, asking to see evidence of qualifications, making Criminal Record Bureau checks for certain jobs, and so on. When information provided throws up questions or concerns that remain unresolved, we will not proceed with an application and we may contact the police if we suspect fraud. For this reason, we strongly advise against providing false information when applying. Equally, we would ask for your patience and understanding during the application process.

Please do not write to or contact any Kensington and Chelsea Councillor about your job application. Seeking the support of any Councillor directly, or indirectly, for employment with the Council or any appointment in the Council is strictly prohibited, and would disqualify an applicant.
