THE MISBOURNE

Social, Emotional & Mental Health SEN Teacher
REQUIRED ASAP
Salary Range: MPS/UPS plus fringe

We are looking for a suitably qualified professional who has experience working with students who have specific needs and therefore require additional support to ensure they are able to successfully access everything our mainstream school has to offer.

This is a unique and exciting opportunity to join a forward thinking student focused school and to help create an exceptional learning experience for students within the school within a newly created, challenging but highly rewarding role. What is absolutely essential to be successful in this role, is that you're able to be adaptable and proactive in getting to understand the needs and interests of students, working with them to further their academic and personal development. The ideal candidate will be resilient and determined to enhance the life chances of our students.

- Like us, you will have high expectations of all students.
- You are somebody who can maintain professional yet empathetic boundaries with students.
- You can maintain an effective balance between supporting students and helping them do better next time. The relationship must be one that enables trust and safety but is consistent.
- You would work to identify students' barriers to learning and help overcome them.
- You are somebody who is strongly curious to understand behavioural needs.
- You know that children should be taught the skills they need to manage in a wide range of organisational and social settings.

We can offer you:

- Students who are a pleasure to teach.
- An experienced, friendly and collaborative team.
- A supportive approach to workload
- An evidence informed approach to school improvement, only implementing what we feel will make the biggest difference to the lives and outcomes of young people, mindful of staff workload and well-being.
- A genuine commitment to support your career development through a CPDL programme, described by Ofsted as 'exemplary', and more INSET days than average.
