The Reach Free School is looking to appoint an enthusiastic and committed Spanish teacher to join our team of talented, energetic and visionary teachers.

Spanish is a core subject at The Reach Free school and is taught to all classes three times a week. Spanish is the only language taught at the school enabling pupils to focus on this from year 7. A number of the primary feeder schools have also adopted Spanish as their language, meaning that pupils are joining the school with an understanding of the basics before accelerating their learning in Key Stage 3 and beyond. At GCSE the school has a very high uptake for Spanish with over 75% of pupils in each cohort taking the subject, which has been recognised by the Schools' Minister, Nick Gibb. At A Level the subject is a popular choice for students to continue their study. Around the school signage is in both English and Spanish to demonstrate the commitment to the subject and in years 7 and 10 pupils attend residential to Majorca and Andalucia.
