"Pupils thrive at this highly inclusive school. The school has very high expectations of pupils, who strive to meet them. Pupils achieve exceptionally well. They benefit from the warm and respectful relationships they have with the staff." (Ofsted December 2024)

Are you an experienced teacher who is keen to lead provision and develop staff practice to support our SEND learners?

SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS COORDINATOR

Permanent post

Full time or Part time considered

Salary Scale: MPR or UPR (to match current allocation)

TLR allowance allocated for leadership of a year group or shared leadership of a Key Stage

This position has become available in our large 3 form entry infant school with a nursery class. We are keen to continue to innovate to ensure effective support for our learners.

The school offers you:

- friendly and enthusiastic pupils who are keen to learn
- high aspirations for staff and pupils
- highly trained teaching and learning assistants
- extensive and attractive grounds with excellent outdoor provision for each year group
- the opportunity to complete an appropriate SEND Accreditation

You will offer the school:

- energy and a sense of purpose
- innovative ideas which will further develop the school's provision for pupils with additional needs
- a focus on the achievement and personal development of all pupils

Visits to the school to meet staff and pupils are most welcome.
