Role Summary	Roles at this level typically provide specialist support. Many will possess technical rather than professional expertise in the main disciplines. There will be minimal day-to-day supervision, but clear guidance will be available. The roles will plan for the weeks ahead and prioritise to accommodate non standard work. They often require understanding of complex procedures and support systems, and the ability to allocate workload and react to changing priorities. Although most work will follow established patterns, initiative is needed to handle processes and resolve problems and behaviour based on experience and judgement, mainly without reference to others. These roles may work alone instead of as part of a team, or programme delivery which may require more specialist knowledge or experience. Responsibility may include management of resources and/or area of work.
