Royal Greenwich Trust School

Royal Greenwich Trust School, part of the University Schools Trust, is an expanding start-up 11-18 school in the heart of Royal Greenwich.

In 2017, RGTS was established with an initial cohort of year 7 students and a sixth form provision.

In 2020, we opened our brand new £14 million building and moved into the next stage of the school's growth as our inaugural cohort moved into Key Stage 4.

Our continued growth afforded us the opportunity to increase our staff team and September 2021 saw our school fully staffed as we welcomed our final year group into the school.

This appointment presents an exciting opportunity for the right candidate to play a significant role in shaping the future of our growing learning community within our Inclusion Department.

University Schools Trust (UST) is a unique partnership of six world-leading universities and four sector-leading bodies who are working together to deliver a shared vision of inclusive, high-quality and transformational education.

We want to hear from you if you are:

- Committed to providing an inclusive transformational education for all students.
- Passionate about developing and working within a culture of academic excellence.
- Motivated to contribute directly to the creation and growth of a thriving new secondary school.

Working with us guarantees the opportunity to:

- Be an integral part of a growing school with potential for career development.
- Develop links with our wider UST network for CPD and collaborative practice.

Interested candidates are encouraged to arrange an informal discussion about the role and/or to visit the school. These can be organised via the HR team:
