

KING EDWARD VI HANDSWORTH SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

Person specification Subject Leader Computer Science

Qualifications and Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• QTS (Secondary age range).• Degree level qualification.• Evidence of a commitment to ongoing professional development and staying abreast of current developments in this subject area.
Experience and skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Proven track record of successful teaching across the ability range.• Setting and achieving ambitious goals and challenging targets.• Ability to teach up to GCSE and A Level in their specialist area.• Experience of successfully running co-curricular activities.• Ability to interpret and analyse performance data.• Outstanding use of ICT as learning and teaching tool.
KEVIHS teachers should have the following qualities and attributes, or the potential to develop them:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Profound interest in your subject and commitment to conveying that to your students. .• Ability to work in a fast-paced environment.• Understanding and commitment to safeguarding procedures.• Kindness and a belief in the ability and potential of all students to grow and develop. .• Ability to think originally and creatively and show initiative.• Clear and effective communication with colleagues, students and parents.• Resilience and flexibility to respond to challenges and change.• Commitment to making the school's vision and values a reality.• To be willing to experiment with and apply new approaches to teaching and learning.• To help create an environment that values feedback from all to improve student learning and motivation.• To be able to build good-humoured working relationships with many colleagues.• To believe in the importance of teamwork, both at departmental and whole school levels.• A commitment to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion and the principles and practice of equal opportunities.