Horsham, West Sussex

The Forest School, Comptons Lane, Horsham, West Sussex, RH13 5NT

Lead Teacher of Psychology and Child Development MPR/UPR + TLR 2(b)

We are seeking to appoint an exceptional teacher to develop, launch and lead our exciting new GCSE subject offers for September 2024.

The Forest School is a successful and friendly 11-16 School, committed to achieving high standards and to developing the potential of all our students and staff. We have an ever-increasing number of students joining us each year and have seen our results go from strength to strength along with a significant investment being put into the school

The successful candidate will be able to demonstrate several of the following;

- an enthusiasm for Psychology and Child Development and the ability to share this with young people
- Qualified Teacher Status
- the ability to motivate students and achieve excellent results
- excellent organisational and ICT skills
- the capacity to work collaboratively as part of a team
- a commitment to developing in the role through proactive engagement with CPD and own learning

Applications will be considered from candidates with all levels of experience.

If you are passionate about learning, determined to build relationships with young people, committed to working with the full range of students' needs and talents, and keen to work in a forward-looking school that will support you in your professional development, The Forest School would like to hear from you.

Visits welcomed by appointment.

Please contact the Headteacher's PA, Mrs C Beckett (01403 756001).
