Location:	Berkshire
Contract:	Part-time, Permanent
Salary:	MPS3/MPS6 TLR available for the right candidate

Are you ready for the next step in your career? Are you passionate about SEND?
Do you need a flexible school?

We are looking for an experienced teacher with a strong commitment to supporting pupils with SEND. You will work alongside our highly knowledgeable Inclusion Lead to improve the experience and outcomes for pupils with SEND across the school. Under their direction and with their support, you will develop as a leader and specialist teacher, deepening your understanding of inclusion and SEND. This role is crucial, it will have a direct impact on our pupils and their families. We offer a supportive, innovative and inclusive environment where you can thrive professionally and make a real difference. Come and see for yourself.

What we offer

- A warm, welcoming and highly supportive staff team
- A culture of professional trust and collaboration
- High-quality instructional coaching and evidence-informed CPD
- Opportunities for leadership development and career progression
- Well-established behaviour systems that support effective teaching
- A broad and engaging curriculum including music, sport and outdoor learning
- A genuine commitment to staff wellbeing and work-life balance including flexible work
- Strong partnerships with families and the wider community

About you

- Be an excellent classroom practitioner with a strong understanding of effective teaching and learning
- Have high expectations for all pupils and a commitment to helping every child succeed
- Be passionate about inclusion and meeting the needs of diverse learners
- Demonstrate a reflective approach and a commitment to continual professional growth
- Enjoy working collaboratively and contributing to the wider life of the school
- Bring energy, positivity and ambition to your role

What our teachers say about us:

- "The school's welcoming atmosphere, strong relationships and restorative approach to behaviour create a truly supportive environment, with genuine respect for staff perspectives." – Class Teacher
