Hillside Specialist School & College are looking to recruit an inspirational permanent, full time Teacher from the new academic year September 2021. This is a great opportunity for the right candidate to join our unique school. Hillside offers each member of staff free access to health and wellbeing services.

Each class is supported by experienced Teaching Assistants dependent on the needs of the pupils. We believe in the individuality of every student, and offer a personalised approach to teaching.

The ideal candidate would need to be passionate about working with children and young people with autism and want to make a real difference to their lives and education.

Please see the Personal Specification form for the essential and desirable criteria afforded to this post. We would expect each of these criteria to be demonstrated in your letter of application. Visits to the School will be offered as part of the interview process to successful candidates.
