Are you interested in?

- friendly and enthusiastic children who are well behaved and really keen to learn
- a well resourced school with extensive outdoor space
- key opportunities for professional development including 1:1 coaching and mentoring
- working collaboratively with friendly and supportive colleagues
- adding to the future development of the school

We are looking for a candidate who:

- enjoys learning and has excellent teaching skills
- can think and plan strategically and is an effective communicator
- can support, challenge and motivate staff

We are a 3 form entry school with 10 classes, including a Nursery class, and 52 staff. Our current NOR is 313.

The school is organised into 3 teaching and learning teams – Foundation Stage, Year 1 and Year 2. Each team has a minimum of 3 teachers plus a number of highly trained support staff.

The school is part of the Whitley Excellence Cluster, a group of schools working collaboratively together with great success.

If you want to know more about our school please watch our video on the school website:
