'Learning for Life' defines the ethos and values of High Park as a school for pupils with Communication and Interaction difficulties. We have a unique place in the education system in Bradford and in providing an all-age resource for those who need our structures and approaches to learning.

High Park School has a strong commitment to safeguarding

Teacher MPS/UPS with SEN point Required to start January 2022

High Park is an academy for pupils with communication and interaction difficulties including autism and severe learning difficulties, aged 3-19. We are part of the Interaction & Communication Academy Trust (ICAT).

We have created a specialist provision which is child centred and innovative in its approach. Our dedicated multi-professional team support all pupils to access a creative and engaging curriculum in a safe, secure and happy learning environment.

We offer excellent professional development and a unique opportunity to work within a school led system with scope for working alongside colleagues in other schools across the MAT. Special school experience is desirable but not necessary although you should have excellent knowledge of early child development and methods of learning. We welcome applications from NQTs and experienced teachers.

Further requirements for the position:

- A passion and commitment to education for students with complex communication & interaction needs.
- Enthusiasm and energy
- Ability and drive to learn
- Adaptability
- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to inspire and motivate
- Ability to form positive and effective relationships

A visit to the school prior to application is essential please contact Jane Rawson, Business Manager, to arrange.
