Experienced Teacher

(Initially for a maternity cover leading to possible permanent post)

Salary:	Main scale + TLR 2A	Start Date:	April 2025
Closing date	Thursday 13 March 2025 by 12:30 PM	Hours:	Full-time

This is an opportunity for an experienced teacher to join a school which is high achieving and forward thinking. At Bigland Green, pupils and staff live by the school's values and ethos – where pupils love to learn and are very happy. You can read more about the school on the school's website or its last Ofsted report (May 2024).

The successful candidate will have a good understanding of the national curriculum and have the necessary skill set for its effective implementation. They will have a good grasp of adapting teaching to ensure that all pupils learn more and remember more. Overtime, pupils will make good progress and achieve the expected outcomes. They will have an insight for 'SMART' working and be a great team player.

The successful candidate will teach a Year 4 Set (20 pupils) in the morning and provide cover in the afternoons across the school. A TLR 2A may be negotiated for either science or computing by the successful candidate.

Bigland Green offers:

- curious children who are eager to learn, and have good support from parents;
- additional staff in every year group to support set/group teaching;
- full-time TA in every class with additional LSAs to support pupils with needs;
- established systems to ensure a good work-life balance for all staff members;
- specialist TAs to support pupils with reading and 'speech & language' needs, and;
- a modern, spacious building with exceptionally good resources for learning, and very good transport links, and a highly supportive governing body.

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful candidate will require an enhanced DBS clearance. We are dedicated to equality and valuing diversity.

Potential candidates are welcomed and encouraged to visit the school. Please telephone or email to arrange a visit or an informal conversation with the headteacher.

Qualifications

This post is suitable for a qualified experienced primary teacher.

Other qualities

The right candidate will be driven by a moral compass, and be passionate about increasing children's life chances by providing education that helps them to become confident individuals, successful learners and responsible citizens.

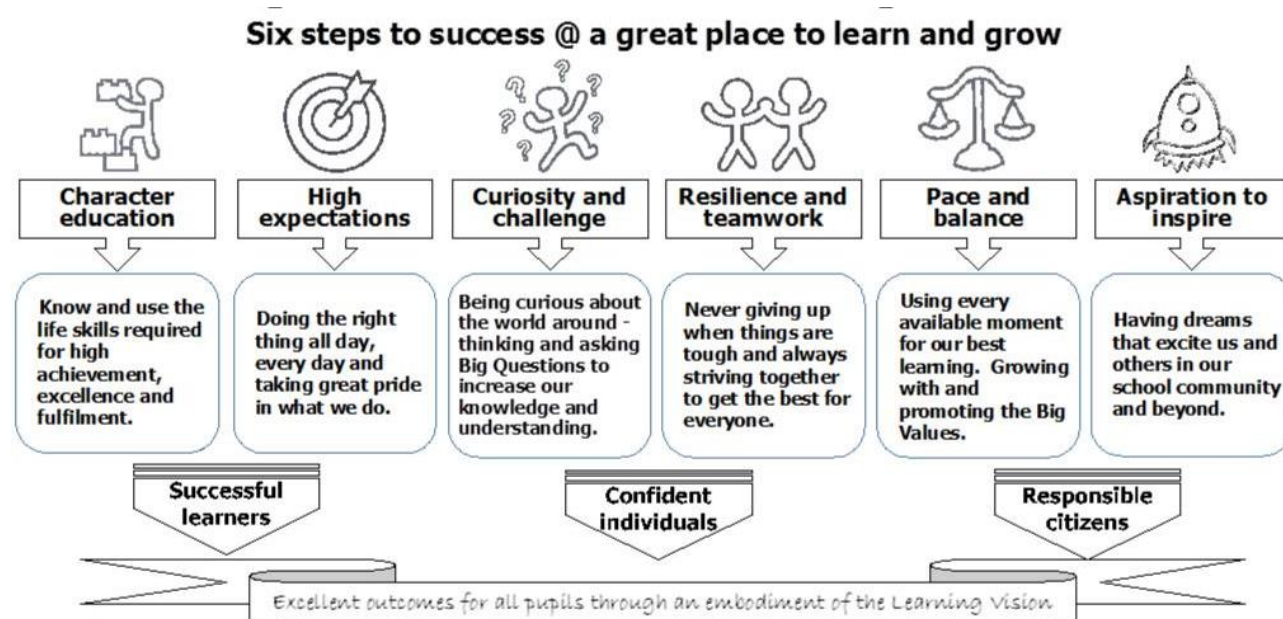

The suitable person will be highly aspirational in their approach and thinking, and have a positive impact on others. They will have a clear understanding and experience of inclusion and SEND. A good understanding of the EYFS and the national curriculum; and the expected outcomes for pupils across the primary phase is essential.

If you feel that you can contribute to the school's mission and its Learning Vision as a school teacher, then we would like you to make a strong application.

Bigland Green Primary School's mission is to provide teaching and learning that helps children to become:

- confident individuals who enjoy learning, make progress and achieve;
- successful learners who are able to live safe, healthy and fulfilling lives, and;
- responsible citizens who make a positive contribution to society and the world.

The school has identified six steps to achieving its mission. These six steps to success are encapsulated in the school's Learning Vision. All key stakeholders (pupils, staff, parents, governors & volunteers) strive for the full implementation of the Learning Vision.

Bigland Green is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff/volunteers to share this commitment. All offers of employment are subject to an enhanced disclosure and other checks.
