Are you ready to make a difference and inspire both staff and children at Friars Primary School?

Friars Primary School has an exciting opportunity for an inspiring member of staff to join a forward-thinking school and play an integral part in its development.

We are looking for someone who will:

- be an excellent classroom practitioner
- have the warmth, enthusiasm & energy to support the leaders of the school
- have excellent communication skills to motivate and lead to enrich pupils learning
- have the ability to raise standards and improve the progress of all pupils
- has a sense of humour, creativity and compassion
- be able to manage a curriculum area

In return we can offer:

- a good school that offers a friendly and caring ethos
- opportunity to lead a subject with support to develop the role through CPD
- a hard working supportive team and committed Governors and parents
- a caring school community where children are at the heart of everything
- our pupils are happy, well behaved and enjoy coming to school
