Position:	Teacher of Art and Photography
Contract type:	Part Time – approximately 0.4FTE with the possibility for extra hours for candidates who can offer an additional subject
Contract term:	Permanent
Salary:	MPS/UPR
Start date:	January 2022

The Role

Corfe Hills is an ambitious and high performing school where every student is known and supported to succeed. The school has been on a significant and ambitious improvement journey over the last four years as can be seen by our excellent outcomes. We are also delighted to share that following our recent Ofsted inspection in September 2021 we have been graded good in all categories.

This is a fabulous opportunity to join our fantastic Art and Photography department. You will join a highly successful department that is thriving and has a strong uptake at both GCSE and A level.

We are seeking an enthusiastic, well qualified and ambitious person to teach Art and Photography at Corfe Hills School. The ability to teach to GCSE is required and the ability to teach at A level is desirable. As a classroom practitioner you would need to demonstrate exceptional classroom practice and be able to motivate and inspire students. This will involve 100% commitment to our vision which is captured in our strapline “High Expectations | Exceptional Individuals”.

This is a part time vacancy (approximately 0.4FTE) with the possibility for extra hours for candidates who can offer an additional subject. We are keen to work with the successful candidate to find a timetable which will be mutually beneficial. There is also an opportunity to teach KS5 for applicants with the right knowledge and experience.

Please see Virtual Exhibition from 2020 and the Art and Photography Instagram on our school website link: Corfe Hills School - Art & Photography Online Exhibition 2020

Teaching and Learning

Teaching and Learning is at the heart of all that we do and our personalised professional development programme is centred around our Principles of Teaching that have been shaped by research from, among others, Barak Rosenshine, John Hattie and Doug Lemov. We also follow a lesson structure shaped around these principles that liberates and enables students to Learn to the Max every lesson. We are committed to regular developmental lesson visits and coaching conversations as part of our shared commitment to developing as practitioners.

The Curriculum

The school operates a 50 period two week timetable. In Year 9, students are taught Art for 2 hours per cycle. From KS4 onwards students then have the option to study Art or Photography at both GCSE and A level.

Our Facilities

Our art and photography facilities are excellent; the department has a suite of large, comfortable classrooms with a dedicated staff office space. The department also has a computer suite located within the department.

Living Here

Corfe Hills School is in a fabulous location within easy reach of Bournemouth and its beaches, Poole and its harbour, the Jurassic Coast and the Dorset countryside. The school serves the catchment area of Broadstone, Corfe Mullen and the wider area and we truly believe that all of our students are exceptional.

Please see the application process on page 8 for further information.

Letter to Candidate

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in the position of Teacher of Art and Photography. At Corfe Hills School we are passionate about excellence in learning. This is the foundation which will enable our young people to achieve the highest possible outcomes during their time with us. We have the highest expectations of students – that they will learn to the max in every lesson, have high aspirations for themselves and embrace the wide range of opportunities available to them both inside and outside the classroom. We deliver a broad, deep, engaging and knowledge rich curriculum that leads to excellent outcomes and prepares our students to make a positive lifelong contribution to society. We place great emphasis on developing character and creativity alongside academic excellence.

Our motto is “High Expectations - Exceptional Individuals” and we truly believe in the potential of every young person who joins the school. We have an exceptionally committed staff, including talented teachers and a fabulous support staff team.

As a school we are absolutely committed to reducing workload so that staff thrive at Corfe Hills School. We offer disruption free classrooms, a highly visible and supportive Leadership Team, a liberating lesson structure based on Rosenshine’s principles, a personalised professional development programme centred around our Principles of Teaching, centralised detentions, daily ‘Learning to Max’ check ins to ensure students are ready for learning and a commitment to whole class feedback.

This pack contains information about our school, an application form and a description of the personal qualities and attributes we look for in a teacher at Corfe Hills School. James Sankey
Headteacher

Job Description

Post: Teacher of Art and Photography

Responsible to: Head of Department

Salary Range: MPS/UPS

The main duties and responsibilities will include:

1. Teaching your subject area up to Key Stage 4 (up to Key Stage 5 is desirable);
2. Playing a central role in the department, contributing to extra-curricular activities, revision sessions, competitions, trips and open days;
3. Making a vital contribution to the efficient running of the department including setting and marking examinations and undertaking administrative tasks as delegated by the Head of Department;
4. Continuing to develop the high standards of work and expectation of student progress within the department;
5. Enhancing the quality of teaching and learning in the department and wider school through sharing resources and good practice, lesson observation, collaborative teaching and mentoring;
6. Adhering to the school's principles of teaching, learning and assessment;
7. Taking responsibility for professional learning and fully engage in the school's CPD programme;
8. Promoting high levels of written and oral academic language and develop students' knowledge of the world;
9. Setting the highest standards and behavioural expectations in lessons and around the school;
10. Maintaining the highest standards of professional conduct and act as a role model to young people;
11. Selecting, using and preparing appropriate resources that maximise the impact of teaching on student learning;
12. Actively liaising with all specialist support available to provide appropriate provision for students with different learning and/or behavioural needs, but to remain accountable for the progress of those students;
13. Undertaking the role of form tutor;
14. Committing to and supporting the school's policy and practice in relation to safeguarding and child protection;
15. Undertaking such other duties and responsibilities as may be reasonably requested by the Headteacher in accordance with the relevant Pay and Conditions Document.

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities for the post, each individual task undertaken may not be identified. The job description, in consultation with the post holder, may be changed by the Headteacher to reflect or anticipate changes in the job commensurate with the grade and job title
