

Teacher of Art

Job description and person specification

Job description

Post title: Teacher of Art
Salary: MPS/UPS
Position: 1.0 FTE
Reports to: Head of Department

Diverse Academies is a multi-academy trust with a vision to inspire, to raise aspirations and to create brighter tomorrows. Across primary, secondary and special settings, we share a common mission to nurture curiosity, develop wellbeing and empower children and young people to go beyond their aspirations. Together, we believe we can make a difference in our diverse communities, and in the lives of those who learn with us and work with us.

We empower. We respect. We care.

Purpose of the post

- In addition to the Conditions of Employment laid down in the current DfE School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document, you will be required to carry out the following duties:
- To undertake the teaching of designated students and associated duties according to the National Curriculum, other statutory curriculum requirements, and within the framework of whole academy and faculty policies, local agreements and statutory regulations.
- To take an appropriate share of responsibilities attached to teachers generally within the academy in connection with the teaching and supervision of students, the preparation and marking of work, monitoring of student progress, departmental and team planning and development and the day to day operation of the academy, faculties and teams.
- To contribute to students' wider development within the academy.

Main duties and responsibilities

- To teach to the highest possible standard in the appropriate curriculum area/s as agreed with the Principal, within the framework of the National Curriculum (where appropriate), department and whole academy policies and requirements.
- To ensure that the quality of teaching and learning in lessons is of the highest possible quality.
- To maintain good classroom discipline.
- To ensure high quality classroom management.
- To closely monitor student's progress against pre-determined targets according to whole academy and faculty policies.
- To keep records of student achievement and progress.
- To set and mark homework/extended learning tasks according to the whole academy and faculty policy.
- To maintain high expectations of students and ensure that teaching approaches and materials are commensurate with student capability so that the optimum standard of student achievement is reached.
- To participate in faculty/subject planning, development of appropriate syllabuses, resources and schemes of work.
- To share the responsibilities required to enable the faculty/subject to function successfully. To attend and contribute to meetings/development time according to the academy's meetings/development schedule.
- To implement all aspects of the academy's Assessment, Recording and Reporting Policy including completion of Interim Reports, RoA's, other assessment, recording and reporting requirements and attending Progress Evenings to discuss student progress with parents.

Additional

- We all have a responsibility for providing and safeguarding the welfare of children and young people we are responsible for or come into contact with.
- Collectively, we share and co-develop best practice for the benefit of all our academies.
- We promote the employment of people with disabilities and will make adjustments considered reasonable to the above duties.
- You will have the opportunity to access the very best professional development and therefore may be required to attend, from time to time, training courses, conferences, seminars or other meetings.
- This job description is not an exhaustive list of duties and the post holder will be required to undertake any other reasonable duties discussed and directed by the line manager.

- We empower our colleagues to enable our students and pupils to meet the highest possible standards, and we recognise that all our staff have a role in improving student outcomes.
- The contents and allocation of particular responsibilities and duties may be amended after consultation from time to time as part of a broader structural review.
- We have an established framework of core principles and practice to which all our academies subscribe, which are developed and agreed on in collaboration.
- It is a condition of your employment you are expected to adhere to our policies, procedures and guidelines.
