Dear Candidate

Thank you for your interest in our maternity cover Teacher of Art position. The post is 1.0 FTE, however we welcome applications from candidates seeking part-time working hours. We are delighted to offer this exciting opportunity to join our dynamic Technology & Art Faculty from January 2027.

At Sir John Nelthorpe School, we are committed to providing a high-quality education in an environment where creativity and academic achievement go hand in hand. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to inspire and engage our pupils in Art at Key Stage 3, 4 and 5. Alongside this, the candidate will also teach Food Technology at Key Stage 3 and Key Stage 4.

Our Technology & Art Faculty is a collaborative, supportive team, and we pride ourselves on the diversity and breadth of the subjects we offer. We are looking for someone who can inspire pupils to be creative, develop their technical skills, and grow as independent thinkers. If you are a passionate and flexible educator with a love for Art and a desire to support young people in their creative journeys, we would be excited to receive your application.

Sir John Nelthorpe School is a thriving 11-19 school with a strong sense of community and an excellent reputation for fostering the development of our pupils both academically and personally. As a school, we are proud of our vibrant and welcoming atmosphere, where we nurture curiosity, ambition, and achievement in all of our pupils.

If you join us, you will be part of a school that truly values its staff and pupils, and you will have access to a range of professional development opportunities to enhance your career.

We look forward to receiving your application and the opportunity to discuss how you can contribute to our dedicated team. The closing date for applications is 9am on Monday 5th October 2026.

Thank you again for considering Sir John Nelthorpe School. I hope you will take the next step towards joining our community.

Yours sincerely

Mr R Biglands
Headteacher
