

TEACHER OF ART

SALARY: MPS (RANGE £29,344 - £40,083)

BASIC, PLUS PENSION AND PERFORMANCE-RELATED PAY

LOCATION: THE THOMAS ALLEYNE ACADEMY, STEVENAGE

START DATE: 1 SEPTEMBER 2023

JOB PURPOSE

We are currently recruiting for an enthusiastic, creative and reliable Teacher of Art to work within our friendly and supportive art department. The successful candidate will have experience of working with children aged 11-16 years and be able to demonstrate they can implement the academy's commitment to the safety and welfare of children. This position is suitable for all teachers, including those undertaking an ECT programme.

The successful candidate will demonstrate a passion for the subject, have the ability to inspire students, have commitment to raising participation levels in extracurricular activities and have an awareness of curriculum developments across key stage three and four. This appointment will start in September 2023.

ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

As a teacher you will

1. Set high expectations which inspire, motivate and challenge students

- Establish a safe and stimulating environment for students, rooted in mutual respect
- Set goals that stretch and challenge students of all backgrounds, abilities and disposition
- Demonstrate consistently the positive attitudes, values and behaviour which are expected of students

2. Promote good progress and outcomes by students

- Be accountable for students' attainment, progress and outcomes

- Be aware of students' capabilities and their prior knowledge, and plan teaching to build on these
- Guide students to reflect on the progress they have made and their emerging needs
- Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of how students learn and how this impacts on teaching
- Encourage students to take a responsible and conscientious attitude to their own work and study

3. Demonstrate good subject and curriculum knowledge

- Have a secure knowledge of the relevant subject(s) and curriculum areas, foster and maintain students' interest in the subject, and address misunderstandings
- Demonstrate a critical understanding of developments in the subject and curriculum areas, and promote the value of scholarship
- Demonstrate an understanding of and take responsibility for promoting high standards of literacy, articulacy and the correct use of standard English, whatever the teacher's specialist subject

4. Plan and teach well-structured lessons

- Impart knowledge and develop understanding through effective use of lesson time
- Promote a love of learning and children's intellectual curiosity
- Set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding students have acquired
- Reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching
- Contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curriculum within the relevant subject area(s)

5. Adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all students

- Know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable students to be taught effectively
- Have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit students' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these
- Demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support students' education at different stages of development

- Have a clear understanding of the needs of all students, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; those with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approaches to engage and support them.

6. Make accurate and productive use of assessment

- Know and understand how to assess the relevant subject and curriculum areas, including statutory assessment requirements
 - Make use of formative and summative assessment to secure students' progress
 - Use relevant data to monitor progress, set targets, and plan subsequent lessons
- Give students regular feedback, both orally and through accurate marking, and ensure students to respond to the feedback.

7. Manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment

- Have clear rules and routines for behaviour in classrooms, and take responsibility for promoting good and courteous behaviour both in classrooms and around the school, in accordance with the academy's behaviour policy
- Have high expectations of behaviour, and establish a framework for discipline with a range of strategies, using praise, sanctions and rewards consistently and fairly
- Manage classes effectively, using approaches which are appropriate to students' needs in order to involve and motivate them
- Maintain good relationships with students, exercise appropriate authority, and act decisively when necessary

8. Fulfil wider professional responsibilities

- Make a positive contribution to the wider life and ethos of the academy
- Develop effective professional relationships with colleagues, knowing how and when to draw on advice and specialist support
- Take responsibility for improving teaching through appropriate professional development, responding to advice and feedback from colleagues
- Communicate effectively with parents with regard to students' achievements and wellbeing.
- Act as form tutor and monitor the attendance, punctuality and welfare of tutor group (if required)
- Deliver pastoral work as specified by the Head of Year

- Take on any additional responsibilities which might from time to time be determined by the Headteacher

PERSON SPECIFICATION

- To work with honesty and integrity
- To have strong subject knowledge and to keep this up to date
- To be creative in your approach and teaching practice
- To have an interest in, and understanding of, a variety of artistic media and artists
- To be self-critical
- To possess excellent inter-personal skills in order to forge positive working relationships with staff, parents and students
- To be able to work collaboratively with other teachers in your department
- To manage your time effectively
- To understand how to act on student data to get the best from your classes
