

Teacher of Biology

Full Time Mps/Ups

Required for September 2023

The Governors of this successful school seek to appoint a well-qualified, enthusiastic and innovative individual to teach Biology through to A Level. The post offers a significant professional development opportunity to support the development of a dynamic and creative curriculum within a supportive and caring school community. Stretford Grammar School is a thriving, vibrant and oversubscribed foundation grammar school with a diverse social and cultural intake. Standards and achievement are very high, and the school was rated good, with outstanding behaviour by Ofsted in 2015 and again in 2019.

School would welcome applications from candidates who can support and demonstrate a commitment to our diverse school community.

For any enquiries please contact Mrs. E. Hayes, P.A. to the Headteacher, Stretford Grammar School, Granby Road, Stretford, M32 8JB. Tel: 0161 865 2293 ext 5 or e-mail recruitment@stretfordgrammar.com

The Governing Body of Stretford Grammar School is committed to equality of opportunity and safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. It expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful candidate will be subject to a DBS and pre-employment checks.
