April 2025

Dear Applicant

Teacher of Business

We are excited to announce an opportunity for a Teacher of Business to join our Business and Languages department.

We have high expectations for our students, supporting them to achieve excellent academic outcomes and develop key life skills through our seven-year curriculum. Our staff are highly skilled, with teaching and learning being at the heart of all we do.

Brine Leas School is in Nantwich, Cheshire, and is a highly successful and oversubscribed school, consistently rated "Good" by Ofsted with an "Outstanding" sixth form. The school's thriving sixth form, BL6, offers a challenging academic program with tailored mentoring and comprehensive support, attracting students from diverse backgrounds.

The mission statement, "Believe. Learn. Succeed." underpins the school's approach, encouraging students to reach their full potential through high-quality teaching and excellent pastoral support.

We seek an excellent Teacher who fits our ethos and will inspire and motivate staff, students and the wider community to ensure that every student has the opportunity to succeed.

Visits to our school can be arranged by contacting Cally Quarterman in the HR team on 01270 625663 or hr@brineleas.co.uk. All posts are subject to enhanced disclosure procedures and pre-employment checks.

Thank you for considering this opportunity.

Yours sincerely,

Paul Whitehead
Headteacher

Information

The Post

The governors and Headteacher are seeking to appoint an exceptional candidate within the Business and Languages department.

A person specification and job description are included in this pack.

Business and Languages Curriculum Area

Within the Business and Languages department, GCSE Business Studies and BTEC Enterprise are taught at Key Stage 4, and Alevel Business Studies and A-level Economics are taught at Key Stage 5. All four subjects have become popular choices amongst our students, many of whom choose to continue these subjects in Higher Education.

Business Studies, along with Computer Science and Modern Foreign Languages, form our Business and Languages Curriculum area led by the Curriculum Leader, Deputy Curriculum Leader and three Subject Leaders. We have a highly committed and experienced faculty within the Business and Languages Curriculum area who are passionate about their subjects and about raising the academic achievements of our students. They all strive to cultivate students' curiosity, creativity and confidence along their journey. In addition, all members of the faculty are supportive and willing to share good practice to encourage staff development and support wider school initiatives.

The Business Studies department has access to 4 dedicated computer suites in the main school, and a further 4 computer suites in the 6th form building .

Further to our curriculum offer, we provide opportunities for students to take part in a varied programme of extracurricular clubs, trips and competitions including national competitions with companies such as Microsoft and Barclays.

The Rehabilitation of Offender Act

All posts involving direct contact with children are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. The successful applicant will be required to apply for an enhanced DBS certificate. As the post will involve regulated activity with children, it is a criminal offence to apply for this post if you are included on the children's barred list held by the DBS.

Amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013, 2020 & 2023) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected'. These are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Ministry of Justice website or visit <https://unlock.org.uk/advice/what-will-be-filteredby-dbs/>.

Shortlisted candidates will be asked to provide details of all unspent convictions and those that would not be filtered, prior to the date of the interview. You may be asked for further information about your criminal history during the recruitment process. If your application is successful, this self-disclosure information will be checked against information from the Disclosure & Barring Service before your appointment is confirmed.

Any data processed as part of the DBS check will be processed in accordance with data protection regulations and the trust's privacy statement.
