Welcome from the Headteacher

Thank you for your interest in applying to join John Hampden Grammar School (JHGS). As a leading boys grammar school in High Wycombe we want to give our students every opportunity to enable them to #BeMore in school and in life. Engaging, innovative and inspirational teaching enables the boys to go to the best Universities and Degree Apprenticeships. All boys have a chromebook and we've embraced Google Classroom so all boys and staff can access the very latest lesson resources and teaching techniques. We had Ofsted in early September and achieved outstanding in every category. You can be assured that working at JHGS will develop your knowledge, skills and career alongside friendly and supportive staff and enthusiastic and keen boys.

Everyone talks about the strong sense of community at JHGS. We all look out for each other. The boys' behaviour is always respectful so you will enjoy teaching here. We are recognised as providing some of the best pastoral care in the area with an exceptional SEND department. Boys and parents also welcome the provision of school counsellors and a school nurse. We will never damage the mental health and wellbeing of staff and students for better exam results or a higher position in an exams league table.

Our extensive extra-curricular programme provides boys and staff with some of their happiest and funniest memories of school. Modern Languages, Mathematics and PE have annual trips abroad. We are the 16th best State School for Sport fielding teams in a huge array of sports and regularly winning at regional and national competitions. Over 100 boys take part in our termly music concerts and annual school productions. The Pratchett Debating Society has produced many of the Head Boy and prefect team over the years. Staff have even accompanied boys to Buckingham Palace to collect their DoE Gold Awards. The boys have established an LGBTQY+ group called QandA which meets on a weekly basis and organises an annual "JHGS Community" week. We encourage staff to get involved in extra-curricular activities; it's a great way to build positive relationships with the boys.

JHGS is a great place to work. We've invested over £4m in new teaching facilities and refurbishments throughout the school. Staff and students work together, supporting each other, to #BeMore.

This information pack provides you with an overview of JHGS. On our website www.jhgs.bucks.sch.uk you will find more information and many videos which can help you see what we're like. I look forward to reading your application to join JHGS.

Headteacher

Welcome from the Head Boy

In my time at John Hampden, teachers have captured my imagination, new sports have caught my attention, different perspectives have inspired me and I have been able to discover my talents. There is a place for everyone to have a chance to explore the passions they have and new interests they discover in class as there are a wide plethora of extra-curricular activities where passion sparks a deeper level of learning.

In addition to being an environment that inspires the growth of cultural capital and soft skills, John Hampden is a nurturing environment for those that need extra support. The takeaway I hold in the highest regard from my career in John Hampden so far is the self-awareness that I have gained and the appreciation I have for those that encourage me has become immense. We have outstanding pastoral care and student welfare where any student can find an open ear and sound advice so students are encouraged to make sure to ask when there is anything they are having trouble tackling on their own.

It is in this environment of care, John Hampden raises young people to become inquisitive, well-spoken and knowledgeable; supports us in finding out what subjects and careers we want to go after, and then equips us with the skills and independence to go after them. Making the most of John Hampden means you will #BeMore. #BeMore: Independent, Ambitious, Excited, Knowledgeable, Resilient.

About us

John Hampden Grammar School was established in 1893 as the Schools of Science and Art to support the local furniture industry, before becoming a technical school and finally a grammar school in 1970. There have only been six Headteachers in the history of the school. Miss Tracey Hartley became the first female Headteacher when she was appointed in September 2016.

We're building on our Technical School heritage to prepare the boys for the modern world. We place equal importance on developing the soft skills that they will use in employment and life as achieving their academic potential. Our newly opened Compass Quad reminds the boys every day that making the most of JHGS will enable them to go anywhere in the world; North, South, East or West with a strong moral compass instilled in them over their years at JHGS.

We are a popular school for the High Wycombe community with 1232 pupils on roll. This includes 913 pupils in Years 7 to 11 and 319 pupils in the Sixth Form. JHGS is a multicultural school with boys from many ethnicities speaking a range of languages. The prayer and quiet reflection room is used on a daily basis by staff and students.

Quit Ye Like Men and #BeMore

The school's motto, 'Quit Ye Like Men' is adapted from 1 Corinthians 16: We believe the message, summarised below, makes our motto just as relevant today.

- Quit Ye Like Men
- Be aware of your actions
- Follow your principles
- Be courageous and strong
- Everything you do should be done with love

#BeMore is how we aim to give the boys the skills and aspiration to succeed in life. The #BeMore taglines are embedded in our teaching.

Exam Results:

We achieved our best ever set of GCSE and A level results in summer 2022. Attainment at A level was considerably up on the last actual A level results in 2019: A* 8.3% up to 19.8%, A*-A up from 29.4% to 46%. Students secured their Oxbridge places and many went on to study Engineering related degrees, Business and Economics as well as more unconventional course choices included Ancient History, Film Production, Game Design and Development and Football Business and Finance. We have students starting degree Apprenticeships with Goldman Sachs, Williams Formula 1 and Dyson.

Our GCSE results were excellent: 25.6% of results were Grade 9, 50.5% were Grades 9-8 and 89% were grades 9-6. There were outstanding results in Biology (31.4% grade 9, 55.1% grade 8 or 9), Geography (36.0% Grade 9, 67.5% Grade 8 or 9), Mathematics (50.0% grade 9, 70.0% grade 8 or 9), and chemistry (35.9% grade 9 and 60.3% Grade 8 or 9).

Alumni:

We have an active alumni and a number of old boys including Heston Blumenthal, Sir Terry Pratchett, Kenton Cool and Simon Burnett to name but a few who have helped change the world, significantly contributing to many areas of life. Today our more recent Alumni return to the school to give University and early career talks, such is the strength of the bonds within the JHGS community.
