Disability

The Disability Discrimination Act considers you are disabled if:

- You have a longstanding physical or mental condition or disability that has lasted or is likely to last at least 12 months, and
- This condition or disability has a substantial adverse effect on your ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

Trafford Council has adopted the social model of disability. In contrast with the above, this holds that people with impairments are disabled by physical, organisational or attitudinal barriers.

Do you consider yourself to be disabled as set out under either of the above? Yes  No
