Computer Science / ICT Teacher

Person Specification

Essential	Assessed through
Good hons degree (2:2 or higher)	Application
QTS status	Application
Good A Level results (or relevant level 3 qualification)	Application
Evidence of ability to deliver outstanding lessons (through formal lesson observations)	Letter/references/teaching episode
Evidence of ability to deliver outstanding pupil outcomes (examination results)	Letter/references/performance data
High level of subject knowledge and enthusiasm for subject	Letter/Interview
Ability to teach GCSE Computer Science	Letter/interview
Excellent ICT skills	Letter/references
Ability to inspire and enthuse young people	Letter/references/teaching episode
A genuine love of teaching and rapport with young people	Teaching episode/interview
Excellent interpersonal skills	Interview/references
Excellent relationships with colleagues	References
Planning, organisation and time management	Application / Interview
A sense of humour	References/interview
Willingness to contribute to the tutorial programme	Letter/interview
Commitment to further professional development and learning	Application/letter

Desirable	Assessed through
Evidence of contributing to development of departmental schemes of work	Letter/interview
Evidence of a willingness to contribute to extra-curricular programme	References/letter/interview
Evidence of contributing to the development of e-Safety with young people	Application/interview
Ability to teach KS3 Maths	Letter/interview