TEACHER OF COMPUTING
MPS/UPR (Outer London)
Full time from September 2022

Would you like to use your Computing skills to teach highly motivated students at the recently recognised Cyber School of the Year? We are looking to appoint a teacher of Computing who has the subject knowledge and desire to inspire our extremely engaged, articulate and diverse student body.

There is great enthusiasm for the use and development of technology within the school, with high numbers studying the course at GCSE and A level, and our students are keen and very successful participants in a range of ICT related competitions and projects. Recent successes include the introduction of CyberEPQ to Year 12, CyberCenturion and reaching the Final of the CyberFirst Girls' competition for the fourth time.

Early career teachers are very welcome to apply - we support the development of new teachers through an excellent ECT training programme and the Computer Science department is very supportive in its approach.

Candidates suitable for the role will:

- be confident in teaching Computing up to and including GCSE to high achieving students and be excited about moving on to teaching to A level
- be passionate about personal and professional development and demonstrate a willingness to engage with the findings of evidence-based research through our whole school CPD programme
- help extend and enrich students' school experiences beyond the curriculum
- have the ability to communicate effectively with staff, students and parents

We can offer:

- the opportunity to join a highly successful Computer Science department with a wide range of experience and expertise in a school recently judged 'Outstanding' under the new Ofsted framework
- access to extensive teaching resources covering the whole curriculum from Year 7 to 13
- a stimulating and creative environment in a school where extracurricular activities flourish
- a CPD provision tailored to your needs focusing on areas of research and development
- a diverse workplace, with an engaged student and staff community who are currently collaborating on a review of the school's approach to equality
- a two week October half term
- a supportive environment where the work-life balance of teachers is proactively supported
- numerous other benefits (please see our attached information pack)

The Tiffin Girls' School is ideally situated just fifteen minutes' walk from Kingston upon Thames town centre and mainline station (Zone 6). For further information about our school please see our web site on www.tiffingirls.org Please note that CV's will not be accepted.

Closing date: 9am Monday 24 January 2022
Interview date: to be confirmed

The Tiffin Girls' School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The post is subject to an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check, verification of the right to work in the UK and, where applicable, a prohibition from teaching check.
