Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in the post of Teacher of Design Technology. As noted in the advert this role could be appropriate for a newly or recently qualified teacher or for a more experienced colleague seeking career development. We are seeking to appoint a teacher of Design Technology but we are also exploring options for the leadership of the Design Area of Learning.

There are two job descriptions included in this recruitment pack: Teacher of Design Technology and Director of Learning. Please make reference to the job description linked to the level of post you wish to apply for.

You are applying to the school at a very exciting time in its development. We plan to develop and innovative curriculum in support of academic achievement and wellbeing for all. We are ambitious to take the school to the next level. Our reputation in the local community is strong and the school continues to grow in size.

We would welcome an application from an enthusiastic, motivated, dynamic and inspirational Teacher of Design Technology who would be able to bring a vibrant approach to teaching which would draw together active participation, independent learning and enjoyment for all students, ultimately helping them achieve and attain the highest possible levels. The successful applicant for a leadership role would also demonstrate the ability to lead the rest of the Area of Learning in continuing to meet these standards. The school's motto of "Achievement for all" is very important to us.

Should you wish to apply for this post would you please complete the full application form which can be found on the school website and write an accompanying letter of application (no more than two sides of A4, font size 12) stating:

Your vision for Design Technology at Nidderdale High School and how your experiences to date prepare you for this role.

Should you require any other information about this post, please feel free to contact the school. We wish you every success in your application.

Yours sincerely

Kath Jordan
